

Greg Smith – USPTA elite tennis professional M.S. Kinesiology (Biomechanics)

Meet Coach Greg

Greg was the General Manager and Tennis Professional for 30 years at the Lakewood Racquet and Sport Club in Lakewood, WA. Prior to working at LR&SC, he worked for the Vic Braden Tennis College and Research Center for 5 years teaching and doing Biomechanical Analytical Research on tennis and other sports.

As a player, Greg was ranked number one in the Pacific Northwest in Men's 40 and 45 doubles. Greg has also been a member of two USTA National Championship teams and was also awarded the USTA/Pacific Northwest and the USPTA/Pacific Northwest tennis professional of the year.

Residents since 2020, Greg and his wife Cindy split the year between Ocean Hills and the desert. He's generous with his time and his 55 years of experience in the tennis industry, offering clinics and drill sessions to help our OHCC tennis players improve.
